4. INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMMES

In May 2021, the International Students and Development (ISD) unit at the Department of International Affairs, UiTM Global advertised more than 10 international programmes for students and staff to participate in. An overwhelming response for all announced programmes demonstrated the full support of all faculties for internationalisation activities at UiTM in spite of the pandemic. As a result, 10 students from various faculties and campuses were selected for the Frankfurt Summer Universities Virtual Academic Short-Term Programme which will be conducted from 28 June to 9 July 2021. Besides that, 3 staff responded to an email on May 5, calling for “Volunteer Judge for the Queen’s Commonwealth Essay Competition 2021”: Shahrul Nizam Ahmad from the Faculty of Applied Sciences, Mohamed Faizal Sikkandar from the Faculty of Medicine and Mohd Syuhaidi Abu Bakar from the Faculty of Film, Theatre and Animation, submitted their applications. In addition, 2 students, Nabilaa Mohamed from the Faculty of Administrative and Policy Studies and Siti Nurhafeefa Maydir from the School of Chemical Engineering applied for UNESA Summer Course (USC) EDUCARSS 2021 and Bahasa Indonesia untuk Penutur Asing Universitas Negeri Surabaya (BIPA UNESA). Abang Abdul Hafiz Abang Ibrahim of the Faculty of Business and Management put forward his candidacy for the 2021 YSEALI Summit: Power of STEAM Education & Workforce Innovation. ISD at DIA will continue to encourage UiTM students and staff to become actively involved in international programmes as they appear.
